

Contributors

Shanae Blaquiere is completing her Bachelor of Arts with a double major in Rhetoric, Writing, and Communicaitons and Religion and Culture. She plans to pursue a Master's degree in Communication Studies next year.

Amanda Buhse is completing a Bachelor of Arts with a major in Criminal Justice and a minor in Sociology. Upon graduation, she hopes to work as a probation or parole officer or in some area of civilian policing.

Taylor Daigneault is in Year Three of the Integrated Education Program at The University of Winnipeg, and will be graduating in 2019 with Bachelor degrees in both Arts and Education. After graduating, Taylor plans to work as a high school teacher.

Jade DeFehr is pursuing a Bachelor of Arts (Honours) in Women's and Gender Studies and a three-year B.A. in English. She plans to graduate in 2018 and hopes to then tackle a Master's degree (possibly in Cultural Studies).

Alexandra Echavarría graduated in spring 2016 with a four-year Bachelor of Arts in Rhetoric, Writing, and Communications.

Rachel Epp was awarded a Master of Arts (Cultural Studies) in spring 2016 She looks forward to gaining more experience in the fields of education and social services before pursuing a Ph.D.

Tapji Garba is currently pursuing a Bachelor of Arts (Honours) in Religion and Culture. He plans to continue his research in theology, philosophy, and critical theory, and to pursue graduate studies

Christina Hajjar will be graduating in 2017 with a Bachelor of Arts in Women's and Gender Studies and a Bachelor of Business and Administration. She intends to continue her work as an artist and organizer.

Rebecca Hume received her four-year Bachelor of Arts from The University of Winnipeg in June 2016, double majoring in Human Rights and Global Studies and French Studies, and minoring in Rhetoric, Writing, and Communications. She plans to do graduate studies in Communication and Culture.

Dylan Jones is currently a student in the Master of Arts program in Cultural Studies. In the future, he hopes to apply the theory he has acquired in an occupation that serves persons with disabilities.

Victoria King was awarded a Bachelor of Arts in the spring of 2016. She currently works as the Program Director at CKUW 95.9 FM.

Madison Loewen graduated spring of 2016 with a Bachelor of Arts (Honours) in Psychology. She is currently working in the "People Care" department of a technology and business consultancy, and plans to pursue a Master's in Psychology.

Kelby Loepky was awarded a four-year Bachelor of Arts in 2016 with a Human Rights major and a minor in Women's and Gender Studies. She is currently attending Osgoode Hall Law School.

Annie McBay will be graduating in 2017 with a Bachelor of Arts (Honours) in Religion and Culture. She plans to pursue a Master's in Public Administration at the University of Manitoba.

Jamie Pfau was awarded a Bachelor of Arts (Honours) in 2016. She intends to pursue a Master's of Social Work at the University of Manitoba in 2017.

Jordyn Sheldon will be graduating in 2017 with a Bachelor of Arts in Human Rights and Rhetoric, Writing, and Communications. She plans to continue her work at the Canadian Museum for Human Rights until she commences graduate studies.

Adrienne Tessier will be graduating in 2017 with a four-year Bachelor of Arts in Political Science. She hopes to pursue public and human rights law.

Rebecca Ward was awarded a Bachelor of Arts in 2016 with a double major in Conflict Resolution and Urban and Inner City Studies. She plans to attend law school.

Tony Weeler was awarded a Bachelor of Arts in Rhetoric, Writing and Communications in 2016. He plans to pursue a graduate degree in Library Sciences at the University of Toronto.